Our friend lived with all his might. He found out what was to be done and he did it. "'As God lives this thing shall go through.' That resolve is only the poor, selfish energy of Napoleon. It is worthless. But if it comes in the consciousness of a man who fights himself in his passion for others, why, all things follow. That class of people, which is too large, who make it their profession to ascribe the worst conceivable motives for every human action could not make Mr. Hanna out when he appeared in what is called public life. They made the mistake, which such men always make, of thinking that the mind, with all its maneuvers and gymnastics and memories and imagination, is greater and stronger than the soul of man, when it works in sincerity and truth, in faith and hope and love. They had to imagine, therefore, a cunning intrigue, a man who accounted for his success as you might account for a boy's success in a game of marbles. But the analysis of character

He knew that faith and hope and love serve, if remains were left at rest at the closed you would mine iron, or smelt it or draw it into bars; and he was not afraid to trust in faith and hope and love if the business in hand were the governing of States, if 'he did the thing that he was set to do.' The gentleman said that a week before the last Republican state convention they both knew. With respect to Herrick it is said that Hanna was following out Mc- MACHEN'S ATTORNEY Kinley's wishes in taking care of the preswas too strong to be overlooked, and it was should be the nominee for Governor with Expected That Case will Be Sub-Harding for the second place. There was a distinct understanding that Herrick should not voluntarily relinquish the Governor's chair, as that would throw the office into the hands of the Foraker element of the party by making Harding Governor. There were certain agreements to be carried out and a change in the Governor's office would violate these offices. Hanna was anxious to carry Cuyahoga county and by making ing's nomination he believed that he would For this reason it is believed that Governor Herrick cannot entertain for an instant the idea of entering the Senate, and Hanna followers, including Herrick himself, must support Dick for the senatorship. While many names are being mentioned, all are mere speculations, and those who give these services the 600 members of the post | the situation serious consideration are growing firmer in the belief that Dick will be
